Domestic Abuse services for Perpetrators

New services aimed at breaking the cycle of domestic abuse are now available. They will help people to reflect on their behaviour and the damage this can cause and what they can do to change.

These include:

- A single point of access, a dedicated resource to respond to enquiries and signpost people needing help with their behaviour onto the appropriate intervention. Delivered by the Change Project.
- A mentoring programme to work with young men aged 13-18 who are at risk currently using abusive behaviours within an abusive relationship. Delivered by Essex Youth Service.

- An outreach service, to focus on engaging with people who are using abusive behaviours in their relationship, within the community. Delivered by the Change Project.
- A prison intervention programme: an educational behaviour change programme to challenge and underpin the attitudes of abusive behaviours for people who are in custody. Delivered by Essex Community Rehabilitation Company.
- The bystander intervention: an educational programme for the prevention of sexual coercion and domestic abuse in university settings.

For further information you can use the following link to a video overview of the services you can refer into:- <https://youtu.be/ESSadqtURpE>

The dedicated telephone number is 07568432146 and is currently available between Monday-Friday from 9am to 5pm.

J9 Update

This national initiative aims to provide safe and secure opportunities for people to disclose domestic abuse and access a full support system. Staff at each J9 contact point are trained to signpost, advise and spot the signs of domestic abuse. Each venue has a safe place where people can access information and use a phone to call for further help. Look out for the pink J9 heart.

Recent training events have taken place in April and June with another event planned in Chelmsford 23rd August 2018.

Domestic Abuse Seminar – For Health Professionals

DOMESTIC ABUSE SEMINAR

Tuesday 16th October

1.30pm – 4.30pm

Skylark Hotel, Aviation Way, Southend-on-Sea, SS2 6UN

Clinicians, who encounter domestic abuse victims, perpetrators and their families, often need to assess whether to share personal information with other professionals. Lawful and responsible information sharing can be vital to help keep victims and their children safe.

This seminar will provide an overview of the legal frameworks for information sharing for victims/perpetrators of domestic abuse and disseminate referral pathways to services.

The speaker, Kate Hill, has worked for a leading law firm for 25 years representing health and social care professionals at Coroners Court and advising NHS Trusts and Private providers on policy and procedure. She has particular expertise in Mental Health and Mental Capacity, Deprivation of Liberty, information sharing, safeguarding.

Parking available on site.

Tea & coffee will be available.

To book: Please email hayley.waggon@nhs.net with your name and the name of the practice you work for.

Exclusive places to Primary Care Clinicians up until 31st July 2018.
